

Table of Contents

Derk Bakker, Greg Hamilton, Rob Hetherington and Cliff Span
Raised bed farming in WA, an application to saline land.	3
Paul Blackwell, Harold Millington, Rohan Ford, and Mike Kerkmans
Innovative use of Tramlines in WA; consequences for better soil management and more profit on shallow soils in low rainfall.	10
Russell Stewart Cannon, Rural Property Design
High Resolution Images - The Key to Sustainable Property Layouts	15
Lindsay Chappel, Perenjori, WA
Controlled Traffic at Chappel's	19
Jamie Grant, Dalby, Qld
Making the most of CTF	20
Dennis Hobbs, Warracknabeal, Vic
Improving Soil Structure	21
Ross Ingram, Emerald, Qld
Farming on the Queensland Central Highlands	23
Jim Kirkwood, Mondurup Pastures, Kendenup WA
Raised Beds and No-Till	25
Andrew Litster, Minlaton, SA
Controlled Traffic Farming on Yorke Peninsula	27
Matt McCallum and Bill Long, Ag. Consulting Co., Ardrossan, SA
Update on CTF and gps uptake by farmers in SA	29
Scott McCalman, Warren, NSW
Farm Management	32
Tim Neale & Don Yule, CTF Solutions, Dalby, QLD
Australian grain farms step up... to take the next big leap Using High Resolution Satellite imagery for dryland crop production	35
Andrew Parkes, Parkes Agricultural Consultancy Pty Ltd Moree NSW
Cotton Systems – “Keytah” (Moree)	36
Rohan W. Rainbow, South Australian No-Till Farmers Association, Clare SA
Use of controlled traffic systems with auto-steer to enhance inter-row cropping and opportunities for introduction of non-chemical weed control systems.	39
Joe Reddy, Tim Neale
Controlled Traffic Lucerne Hay Production	42

Peter Russo, Canegrowers ISIS
A View of the ISIS Future	43
Ben Stephens, Manager, Auscott
The Cotton Industry Perspective	46
Jeff Tullberg, University of Queensland, Gatton
CTF: What's Known, What's Next.	47
Ben White, Kondinin Group
ISO 11783: CAN CANBus deliver what we hope it CAN?	50
Andrew Whitlock, Precision Agriculture Agronomist, DPI, Geelong, VIC
On track to an improved Future – Dryland Cropping	52
Andrew Whitlock, Precision Agriculture Agronomist, DPI, Geelong, VIC
Bed Farming – realising the profiles potential	55
Lionel Williams, Bowen, Qld
Permanent Beds In Horticulture	60
Brian Wilson, Lismore Victoria
Controlled Traffic as a Consequence of Raised Beds	61
Bruce Willson, Winchelsea, Vic
Murdeduke – Raised beds and CTF	64
Don Yule et al
The CTF Advantage and the Next Leap	67